TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY SEASON 2007/2008

Because of donors like you, Portland Center Stage is beginning to play a new role in our community. A role more exciting, more sustainable, more fun and more full of impact than at any moment in the company's history. However, ticket sales will only cover half of the cost of the grand adventure.

Your support is crucial to ensure that we will continue to create innovative productions, bring the nation's best emerging playwrights to Portland for the annual JAW/WEST Festival, and enhance our educational and community programs. Contributions such as yours are an invaluable contribution to our city's artistic vitality.

We need individuals like you who believe that theater is essential in our community.
