

2015-2016 SEASON

OUR TOWN

By Thornton Wilder | On the U.S. Bank Main Stage | Sep. 12 – Oct. 11, 2015

An irrefutable classic of the American theater, this Pulitzer Prize-winning work of humanity and warmth transports us to Grover's Corners, a small New England town at the turn of the twentieth century whose secret desires, family conflicts, loves and losses are resoundingly familiar to us today. This beloved drama receives a fresh interpretation at PCS, inviting us to ponder what Our Town is today.

SEX WITH STRANGERS

By Laura Eason | In the Ellyn Bye Studio | Oct. 10 – Nov. 22, 2015

A raging snowstorm traps strangers Olivia and Ethan in a secluded cabin. Opposites instantly attract, and undeniable chemistry ignites. As the dawn rises, however, what could have just been a one-night-stand transforms into something more complicated when online exploits interfere with their real-life connection.

AIN'T MISBEHAVIN'

By Murray Horwitz and Richard Maltby, Jr. | On the U.S. Bank Main Stage | Oct. 24 – Nov. 29, 2015

Winner of the Tony Award® for Best Musical, this sassy, sultry musical celebration of legendary jazz great, Fats Waller, will have you jumpin' and jivin' with delightful humor and infectious energy. With special permission from the authors, Portland Center Stage will present a new expanded cast version of the original production!

THE SANTALAND DIARIES

By David Sedaris; adapted for the stage by Joe Mantello
In the Ellyn Bye Studio | Dec. 2 – Dec. 27, 2015

Based on the true chronicles of David Sedaris' experience as Crumpet the Elf in Macy's Santaland display, this cult classic riffs on a few of Sedaris' truly odd encounters with his fellow man during the height of the holiday crunch.

The Second City's A Christmas Carol:

TWIST YOUR DICKENS

By Peter Gwinn and Bobby Mort | On the U.S. Bank Main Stage | Dec. 9, 2015 – Dec. 31, 2015

A complete send-up of the holiday classic, this adult comedy is adorned with the improvisational genius of the legendary comedy troupe The Second City. Add a pre-show reception on the Mezzanine for a holiday extravaganza your group won't soon forget!

GREAT EXPECTATIONS

Adapted from Charles Dickens by Lucinda Stroud
On the U.S. Bank Main Stage | Jan. 16 – Feb. 14, 2016

Based on Charles Dickens' classic coming-of-age novel, Great Expectations tells the adventures of the Victorian orphan, Pip. As a boy, Pip has three encounters with people that will forever change his life. When Pip comes into an unexpected fortune and begins the life of a gentleman, his past is not so easily left behind.

FOREVER

By Dael Orlandersmith | In the Ellyn Bye Studio | Jan. 30 – Mar. 20, 2016

In Forever, Orlandersmith visits the famed Père Lachaise Cemetery in Paris where legendary artists such as Oscar Wilde, Richard Wright and Jim Morrison are buried. While paying homage to the artists that felt like her "true family," Orlandersmith explores the complex legacy that she received from her mother and their life in Harlem. Riveting and powerful, Forever is about family—those connected by blood and those that are not—and the legacies that shape us all.

EACH AND EVERY THING

By Dan Hoyle | In the Ellyn Bye Studio | Feb. 6 – Mar. 27, 2016

Award-winning actor/playwright Dan Hoyle takes us on an epic journey to explore how we experience the world in the digital age. We join Dan on a digital detox retreat, meet "phone zombies" and other funny encounters in his search for true community, spontaneity and wonder in our fractured, hyper-connected world.

STUPID FKING BIRD

By Aaron Posner | On the U.S. Bank Main Stage | Feb. 27 – Mar. 27, 2016

In this irreverent, contemporary and very funny remix of Chekhov's The Seagull, award-winning playwright Aaron Posner wages a timeless battle between young and old, past and present, in search of the true meaning of it all. LA Weekly calls it "the best Chekhov adaptation in two decades."

THE PIANIST OF WILLEDEN LANE

Based on the book The Children of Willesden Lane by Mona Golabek and Lee Cohen; adapted and directed by Hershey Felder
On the U.S. Bank Main Stage | Apr. 2 – May 1, 2016

In an expression of hope, The Pianist of Willesden Lane tells the true story of a young musician, who was sent from Nazi-ruled Vienna to the relative safety of London. In this inspirational show, Grammy-nominated pianist Mona Golabek performs some of the world's most stunning classic music as she shares her mother's riveting story of survival.

A STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE

By Tennessee Williams | On the U.S. Bank Main Stage | May 14 – June 19, 2016

In the sultry streets of New Orleans, passions flare and cultures collide in Tennessee Williams' iconic Pulitzer Prize-winning masterpiece. Over the course a summer, Blanche's southern belle facade slowly crumbles as she meets her match in the rough-hewn and hyper masculine Stanley, who is determined to expose her.
