A Christmas Story, directed by Associate Artistic Director Rose Riordan, is based on a series of classic short stories by '60s era New York underground radio raconteur Jean Shepherd. The story follows young Ralphie Parker on his quest for the quintessential Christmas present – a Red Ryder range model air rifle. Joining the cast as Ralphie is Jack Clevenger in his PCS debut. Jack recently received a Drammy Award for Outstanding Young Performer of 2011 for his role of Charles Wallace in A Wrinkle in Time at Oregon Children's Theatre.

Returning to PCS to reprise their roles in A Christmas Story are Portland favorites Darius Pierce as Adult Ralphie, Laura Faye Smith as Miss Shields and Valerie Stevens as Mother. Founding member of Third Rail Repertory Theatre and PCS alum Tim True joins the cast as The Old Man.

Rounding out the all-local cast is an ensemble of eight children. Harrison Goyette returns, puffy snowsuit and all, as Ralphie's kid brother Randy; Hannah Wilson will reprise her role as Ralphie's childhood love interest Esther Jane. Dylan Earhart will be joined by newcomer Avish Menon to play Ralphie's best buddies Flick and Schwartz, respectively. Jeff Schell will play snowball-throwing schoolyard bully Scut Farkus and Hannah Baggs will play Helen, joined by ensemble members Olivia Rentz and Matthew Snyder.

Returning this year to recreate the vintage '40s Lake Michigan industrial town will be scenic designer Tony Cisek, supported by costume designer Jeff Cone's bunny suits, cowboy hats, jailbird strips and snowsuits. The sounds and mood of a winter playground will be created by sound designer Casi Pacilio and lighting designer Nancy Schertler.

Additional support for this production has been provided by Berry Wealth Management and The Oregonian. Portland Center Stage's 2011/12 season is funded in part by Umpqua Private Bank, our lead corporate champion; the Regional Arts & Culture Council and Work for Art; the Oregon Arts Commission; the Paul G. Allen Family Foundation; Helen and Jerry Stern; and Tim & Mary Boyle. The Mark Spencer Hotel is the official hotel partner for Portland Center Stage.

PORTLAND CENTER STAGE inspires our community by bringing stories to life in unexpected ways. Established in 1988 as a branch of the Oregon Shakespeare Festival, PCS became an independent theater in 1994 and has been under the leadership of Artistic Director Chris Coleman since May 2000. The company presents a blend of classic, contemporary and original productions in a conscious effort to appeal to the eclectic palate of theatergoers in Portland. PCS also offers a variety of education and outreach programs for curious minds from six to 106, including discussions, classes, workshops and partnerships with organizations throughout the Portland metro area.

THE GERDING THEATER AT THE ARMORY houses a 599-seat Main Stage and the 200-seat black box Ellyn Bye Studio. It was the first building on the National Register of Historic Places, and the first performing arts venue, to achieve a LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) Platinum certification. The Gerding Theater at the Armory opened to the public on Oct. 1, 2006. The capital campaign to fund the renovation of this hub for community artistic activity continues.
